

Marcy Fletchall, MBA

Executive & Senior Career Coach | Resume Specialist

She is an award-winning Human Resources professional with over twenty years of industry experience. She currently shares her extensive knowledge of career coaching, resume writing, and navigating the ever-changing world of work.

Marcy understands the stresses and pressures finding new employment causes and offers expert advice through the white glove services of a 5-Star coach. As a visionary and pragmatic Executive and Senior Career Coach and Resume Specialist, she has a reputation as a Subject Matter Expert in Job Search, Career Pivot, Career Transition, Outplacement, Career Development, and Resume Writing. She demonstrates her in-depth career management and leadership development background, capitalizing on the personal and practical approach. As an empathetic yet realistic career coach, Marcy uses effective techniques and strategies to enhance the career discovery and landing process. Her research and specialty of writing resumes and cover letters are optimized to provide clients with the ability to move through the Applicant Tracking System (ATS) requirements.

Known as a coach and mentor who cares, listens, and establishes a motivational and non-judgmental climate, Marcy provides exceptional interpersonal and consultative skills. She has expertise working with diverse populations (C-Suite, Managers/Staff, and College Graduates), domestically and internationally.

Her industry experience covers information technology, oil and gas, pharma, healthcare, insurance, banking, consumer products, education, manufacturing, telecommunications, advertising, nonprofits, government, and much more.

Contact Marcy at:

marcy@kaleidoscopecompass.com

